PACE LIGHTING WINS NATIONAL SHOWROOM OF THE YEAR AWARD

Savannah, GA – June 28, 2010 – Pace Lighting of Savannah, Georgia was awarded top honors as National Showroom of the Year in a ceremony in Dallas on June 24. Pace Lighting topped ten other finalists from across the country in its sales category to win this prestigious award.

Pace Lighting was nominated for National Showroom of the Year in March by an esteemed panel of retail and merchandising experts. Entries were judged by Cori Dunn, founding Editor of Residential Lighting and Chief Creative Officer of Crispy Content; Paul Thompson, Vice President of Creative and Merchandising for HomeStyle; and George Whalin, President of Retail Management Consultants and author of “Retail Superstars.” The award was presented by Residential Lighting magazine and the Dallas Market Center.

Pace Lighting President and CEO, Frank Bartlett, stated, “The entire Pace family is honored to receive this national prize. We are a local, independent Savannah business and we are delighted to receive this nationwide recognition. We look forward to being at the forefront of our industry for years to come and to put our expertise to work for all Pace Lighting customers and partners.”

Pace Lighting is an independent lighting retailer located in Savannah, Georgia. Pace Lighting has an 18,500 square foot showroom displaying 2,500 light fixtures from over 175 product lines. Founded in 2001, Pace Lighting opened its state-of-the-art, contemporary lighting showroom in December 2008.
